DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10,13,14, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kugel (5,634,931). Kugel discloses, in figures 3-9 and in col. 7, line 36 to col. 9, line 11, an implantable prosthesis for attachment to tissue or muscle, where the prosthesis has first and second layers of material (42, 44) with interstices permitting formation of adhesions and polypropylene mesh (46) for supporting stress induced by patient movement, at least one pocket (70) formed between the first and second layers, and a layer of barrier material (72) that is resistant to the formation of adhesion with tissue or muscle, where at least one pocket with an access opening (66) is defined by attachment of the first and second layers with stitches (51) that do not extend through the layer of barrier material; where the second layer is attached to the layer of barrier material at discrete locations (with the stitches), leaving substantial areas of the second layer free from attachment to the layer of barrier material; where the stitches are made from tissue or muscle adhesion resistant material ("inert synthetic material"), and where the prosthesis includes a peripheral edge (88 in fig. 9) that resists formation of tissue or muscle adhesions.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 22-74 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record, alone or in combination, an implantable prosthesis for a tissue or muscle defect having, inter alia, at least one layer of mesh or a material with at least a portion of which permits formation of adhesions with tissue or muscle, a peripheral edge, and a pocket formed in the layer; a first reinforcing member coupled to the layer and supporting an outer area of the layer, and a second reinforcing member coupled to the layer and inwardly spaced from the first reinforcing member. The prior art of record also does not disclose, inter alia, that the implantable prosthesis has a first pocket formed in an inner area of the layer and a separate, second pocket formed in an outer area of the layer. The prior art of record does not that the implantable prosthesis has a barrier layer attached to at least a second layer of mesh material attached to a first layer of mesh material, at least one pocket defined by the attachment of the first and second layers of material, and a reinforcing member coupled to one of the layers and arranged to reinforce at least an outer area of the layer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

5. Claims 11, 12, 15-19, and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: None of the prior art of record, alone or in combination, discloses an implantable prosthesis for attachment to tissue or muscle, where the prosthesis has, inter alia, first and second layers of material permitting formation of adhesions, at least one pocket formed between the first and second layers, a layer of barrier material of ePTFE that is resistant to the formation of adhesion with tissue or muscle and covers an entire surface of the second layer, a peripheral edge, and an outer area disposed inwardly of the peripheral edge, where first reinforcing member substantially surrounds and reinforces the outer area, and where a separate, second pocket is formed in the outer area.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Nicolo (6,652,595) teaches an implantable prosthesis for hernia repair.
